

NEWS AND VIEWS . . .

And What Have You

By BOB CRAIG

We were quite pleased at the turnout of voters in Saturday's primary. While 700 votes in Hamlin is really not a very good percentage when you consider the total population, it stacks up very favorably against the 800 or so in the first primary. Especially is this true when you remember that the first vote had just about everything going for it.

An Associated Press story Monday pointed out that the election of Preston Smith and the voter turnout proved that the big cities still can not rule the rural areas of our state. If the rural areas are to survive this trend must continue.

While the big cities may have most of the people they do not have the concerned people that take the time to vote. But, if the rural people lose this concern then we are in trouble, both from the standpoint of our area and the state as a whole.

With over 3,000 people killed on the highways of Texas last year we were glad to see the Abilene Reporter-News take Rep. W. S. Heatly of Paducah to task for his scolding of the Texas Department of Public Safety for using helicopters in its drive against speeders.

Heatly, who is chairman of the Texas House Appropriations Committee, spoke out against this use when the DPS heads were appearing before his committee seeking money for the coming year.

"The people I hear from about radar and helicopters refer to it as gestapo," he said.

It seems that Heatly thinks that it is all right for the DPS to have the helicopters but wants to limit their use to riots, civil commotion and finding missing persons.

He seems to think that the department is taking unfair advantage of law violators when they take to the air to catch them. The Reporter-News asks in its editorial if this is a sporting game they are playing.

We can not help but wonder what Rep. Heatly's reactions are to the charges of police brutality that you hear coming out of the riots up north. We would suspect that he would be one of the first to say they would have less trouble up there if they would get together and quit coddling the law breakers.

And to us there is a great deal of similarity between the two. We would have fewer deaths on our highways if the police would or could get tougher and quit coddling the speeders.

We know all too often we find ourselves going faster than we should even in spite of radar and the other efforts to slow us down. We shudder to think just how fast we might find ourselves driving if we knew there was little chance of being caught.

With more people killed on our highways than in all of our wars we feel that we can get along without the thinking of people like Mr. Heatly.

An effort is being made here to organize a Community Radio Watch program. This is a national program designed to enlist the aid of two-way radio equipped cars to aid public safety agencies.

People with two-way radios are being asked to join such an organization here by Chief Bryan Wasson. While Rep. Heatly might consider such an organization a spy ring or gestapo, it is saving lives and property where it is being used.

Nine such vehicle drivers have just received special awards on the national level for their efforts. Six of these helped capture criminals. Two came to the aid of victims of serious automobile accidents, and one helped save a baby from suffocation.

The whole point of the program is to get people involved with the safety of their fellow man. If you operate a mobile radio unit we urge you to join this worthwhile effort.

We are a little late in getting around to welcome the news from Neinda as a part of the Herald. But we do appreciate Don and June Gregory helping our readers keep up with the happenings of our neighbors to the South.

The Hamlin FFA Chapter and several individual members of the Hamlin FFA Chapter captured top honors at the Area II FFA Convention last weekend in Odessa.

In the Chapter Rating Contest the Hamlin Chapter placed first. There are eighty chapters in Area II. The top three chapters are selected to compete on the state level. The Texas Association will then select eleven chapters to compete in the National Chapter Rating Contest during the National FFA Convention in Kansas City, Missouri, this fall.

Bob Clifton was the big individual winner from Hamlin. He was elected by the delegates of the convention to be Area II's state officer for the coming year. He will now campaign against nine other area winners for the presidency of the Texas Association of Future Farmers of America at the State FFA Convention in Lubbock July 17-19. Bob also won area titles in the National Foundation Livestock Farming Proficiency Award and the Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers' Award. He will now compete for the state title in these areas.

RADIO WATCH PLANNED—

Chief Asks Citizens to Help Keep Law, Order

Chief of Police Bryan Wasson today announced a new public service program designed to encourage residents to be good citizens by helping to maintain law and order.

"I am calling on every citizen in this community to report suspicious acts and unusual occurrences to the police as soon as they see them. This involves identifying the event — for example, an accident, or a robbery — and telephoning the police and giving them the location.

I am also asking for special cooperation from all personnel who drive vehicles equipped with two-way radios. The name of our special program for these drivers is 'Community Radio Watch'. In operation, it's extremely simple — all we ask is that the driver reports any suspicious act or unusual occurrence like a street crime, fire or an automobile accident to his office by radio. His office can relay the details to the police by telephone.

Every company which indicates its willingness to support this program and make this community a better place in which to work and live will be issued a 'Community Radio Watch' membership packet. It will contain information and materials on how to observe and report the suspicious and unusual.

Letters asking two-way radio users to sign up and support this worthwhile program will be mailed to every place of business using mobile two-way radio equipment. As soon as the program is in full swing, acts of extraordinary service will be eligible for recognition and a national award."

Community Radio Watch has been formally adopted by 650 American cities and towns. Half the cities with population over 100,000 have enrolled in this crime-busting program, including Cleveland, Detroit, Long Beach, Philadelphia, San Francisco, and Washington D. C.

Visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Craig and family Friday was her father, T. P. Fincher of Fort Griffin, near Albany.

Agnew Tops Reid In Runoff Voting

Incumbent Johnie Agnew edged out his opponent, Burnia Reid, in the Second Democratic Primary Saturday by 34 votes in the race for Commissioner, Precinct One, according to the unofficial returns. Reid led in four of the five boxes with Agnew picking up his lead in the West Hamlin box.

Jones County voters backed Preston Smith in his bid for the Democratic nomination for governor by better than two to one. Smith carried the county with 2238 votes to his opponent, Don Yarbrough's, 984. Smith carried all 15 boxes, as well as the absentee vote. In the only other race in the county, incumbent Precinct Three Commissioner Lem Ruark lost to V. T. McGee by 27 votes. McGee polled 431 votes to Ruark's 404.

Agnew, who lead a four-man race in the first primary, polled 533 votes to Reid's 499. Agnew received 522 votes in the first primary, while Reid had 307.

With contested races in the two of the four county precincts, the voting was unusually heavy for a second primary with over 3,200 voting country-wide. Just over 4,000 votes were tallied in the first primary. The Hamlin West box polled just over 600 votes in the first primary and just over 500 in the second. The East box here cast 204 votes in the commissioner's race in the first primary and 203 in the second. Both Commissioner nominees are unopposed in the general election this fall while Smith will be going against Republican nominee Paul Eggers.

Rev. Billy Bush is president, Herbert Crouch, vice president and Mrs. Melvin Scott, secretary.

Managers working with the boys this year are Eddie Offield, Yankees; Ewell Mackey, Giants; Jack Haraghty, Cardinals and Bill Maddox, Braves.

Farm Club teams are managed by Herbert Crouch, Cubs; John Holtz, Colts; and Jimmy Lee Hastings, Astros.

Pee Wee managers are James Crowley and Steve Gibson, Pirates; Walter Hargrove and G. E. Campbell, Owls; and Francis Schneeweis and Bill Davis, Eagles. The regular schedule for the summer program continues through July 5 for the Pee Wees and until July 12 for the Farm Club and Little League.

Rains Slow Area Grain Harvesting

The rain that covered the general area Friday night halted the wheat harvest that had been gaining momentum daily. The rain measured at City Pump Station Saturday morning was 2.07.

Some cutting resumed Sunday afternoon and Monday. Monday afternoon a heavy shower fell in spotted areas and .08 was recorded at City Pump Station after a heavy shower.

Sunshine is needed badly in order to get the crop out. Heavy dew and cloudy conditions are severely hampering the harvest.

At Moore Elevator, Robert Fowler, manager, said that they are taking the wheat whenever it can be brought in and are making adjustments for the moisture content.

HS Homemaking Department Sets Adult Classes

Adult classes in the homemaking department of Hamlin High School next week have been announced by Mrs. James E. Simmons and Mrs. Joe Wayne Carter, teachers. Classes in making accessories for the home will begin at 2 p.m. each afternoon, June 10-14.

Tuesday afternoon, all summer homemaking project students are especially invited to attend. A special demonstration will be given.

Mrs. K. N. Lewis of Atlanta, Tex., is visiting with her son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Lewis, Blane, Randy and Kevin.

Swimming Lessons for Kids, Adults Set Here

Swimming lessons will begin here Monday, June 10, for children and adults. Classes will be offered for advanced, intermediate and beginning swimmers.

Beginning swimmers should be six years or older. Preschool children will be taken if they have no fear of the water, say the instructors. The fee is $10. The course is for two weeks, with classes Monday through Friday.

Dan Truelove will operate the pool on membership basis as in the past two years.

Truelove also is trying to set up a free course for all mothers which would equip them to rescue someone in a drowning situation even if they cannot swim. He said last summer some children in the area drowned because their mother could not aid them. A date for the course will be set later, he said. Equipment from Abilene will have to be secured for the demonstration.

Objectives for the swimming lessons are as follows: Beginners: become friendly with the water, become capable of propelling themselves through the water, and swim in all areas of the pool; Intermediates: learn various strokes well, rhythm breathing, side stroke and back stroke; Advanced: become proficient in all the strokes, build strength for distance swimming and learn to apply basic safety rules and life saving techniques.

A system for advancing the younger swimmers will be used this year, with each swimmer earning a name as each step is accomplished.

The swimmer will become a Tadpole when he can do the prone glide and torpedo; a Turtle, when he can go forward with head out of water and also swim under water; a Minnow, when he can float and swim on back; a Perch, when he can go prone across the pool; a Bass, when he can tread water for a long period and perfect the side stroke; and a Dolphin, an excellent swimmer capable of using all the strokes.

Those wishing to sign up for swimming lessons should call SP 4-1120, the Truelove residence, or SP 4-2111, the swimming pool.

POOL OPENS MONDAY — Swimmers enjoyed the water at the Swimming Pool Monday, even though the pool was not completely filled when they were admitted. Dan Truelove, operator of the pool, said that swimming lessons would start Monday, June 10.

Former Hamlinite, Donald Johnson, Taking Part In World Cotton Meet

Donald A. Johnson, Executive Vice President of Plains Cotton Growers, Inc. has accepted an invitation to serve as a member of the official U. S. delegation to the International Cotton Advisory Committee meeting June 2 through June 12 in Athens, Greece.

Johnson, a native of Hamlin, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Johnson, is a 1965 Agricultural Education graduate of Texas Technological College where he ranked in the top 10 per cent of his class. He also re-entered Tech for graduate study in chemistry after serving with the U. S. Army in Germany.

Closely associated with cotton all his life, Johnson began his career with Plains Cotton Growers in 1960 and became executive vice president of the 23-county, 25,000 member organization in 1965.

Johnson, PCG executive officer since 1965 and a member of USDA's National Cotton Advisory Committee, was selected as a producer advisor to the ICAC delegation by Secretary of Agriculture Orville Freeman.

ICAC is an association of 41 countries interested in the production, export, import and consumption of cotton. Its meetings have been aptly described as a "world parliament on cotton."

A major function of the ICAC is to observe and keep in close touch with developments affecting the world cotton situation and to collect and disseminate complete and timely statistics on world cotton production, trade, consumption, stocks and prices.

At times it also suggests to participating governments measures the committee deems suitable and practicable for the furtherance of a sound international cotton economy.

PCG carries out a continuous advertising and promotion program, including the provision of free technical services to foreign spinners, to maintain and expand overseas markets for High Plains production. And in recent years exports have accounted for some 65 per cent of cotton sales from the area.

On the return portion of his trip Johnson will follow through on contacts made in the organization's foreign sales effort with personal visits to trade associations, merchants and mills in seven European countries.

He left Lubbock on May 30 and will return on about June 20.

His tentative itinerary calls for visits to cotton trade associations in Le Harve, France; Bremen, Germany; and Liverpool, England. Spinners, cotton buyers and other industry leaders will be contacted in Milan, Italy; Zurich, Switzerland; Amsterdam, Holland; Frankfurt, Germany; Ghent, Belgium and London, England.

In all of these Johnson will stress the quality improvements being made on the Plains, the technical services being provided by PCG and "our determination to provide the supply, the quality and the services necessary to increase their use of cotton please foreign customers and from the High Plains."

ICAC plenary meetings are alternated between member countries and recently have attracted from 150 to 200 cotton leaders and government representatives from all parts of the world.

Johnson will be the second PCG executive officer to attend an ICAC meeting. The late George W. Pfeifferberger, Johnson's predecessor, was chosen as the producer delegate in 1963 when the meeting was held in Bangalore, India.

"Exports are a significant factor in markets for this area's cotton," Anderson stated, "and we can't afford to miss a single opportunity to enhance our understanding of export markets or to participate in the making of international agreements that conceivably could either make or break our sales to foreign countries."

He also noted that an increase in exports in this country's only immediate hope for returning to the production of 15 or 16 million bales of cotton annually.

A HAT WOULD BE SO MUCH COOLER!

She must go to the native market for her physical needs. The straw hat would be so much better than the old scarf tied and knotted about her head. Sweet, cool air could come through that straw and that would feel so wonderful in this heat!

Where does she go for her spiritual needs? Is there a church on the island? Does she know that she will be told about a great God there who will help her, guide her, and refresh her?

How fortunate we are in this country that there is a church in every community. Spiritual help, refreshment of soul, fellowship and love awaits all who enter her doors. We invite you to attend Church this week.

GRADUATE TO TOTAL ELECTRIC LIVING

"Love that electric air conditioning, of course! WE REMODELED TO TOTAL ELECTRIC OPERATION for $1,300! That included insulation, electric baseboard units — the works! ... and with WTU's incentive allowance we paid only about $1,000. If we ever build a larger home, it'll be total electric—with electric ceiling coils!"—Bob Harrison, Stamford, Texas.

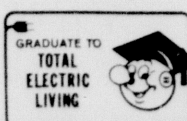

Bob Harrison retired from the San Francisco 49ers and took up farming. Barbara Harrison took up teaching at Oliver Street Elementary School, and Scott (age 2) took to whooping it up on his rocking horse. All three live in a vine-covered home in Stamford, Texas — one they remodeled to Gold Medallion operation 2 years ago. "It's such wonderful living," Barbara says. "I just couldn't do without my electric home laundry and that wonderful summer air-conditioning. When we turn it on, we never want to go outside in the heat!" Everything is clean and comfy — thanks to total electric living!

5 rooms — 1 bath ■ Cooling, heating, cooking, water heating, lighting, small appliances, washer, dryer, food storage, yard light ■ $30.15 mo. average — Remodeled 1966

Ask your building contractor or WTU about remodeling to total electric operation — it's easy and economical.

As It Looks From Here—

Cong. Burleson Opposed to Some Questions Planned for 1970 Census

Omar Burleson, M. C.
17th District, Texas
WASHINGTON, D. C. —
In 1970 a new Census of an estimated 205 million people will be taken in the United States.

Pre-test questions are now being tried out in South Carolina and Wisconsin. A certain number of people in the State of Connecticut have already had all or part of the approximately 100 questions submitted to them to test reaction and response.

Some of the questions proposed for the 1970 census are too embarrassing to put in public print. Some of them compare to Dr. Kinsey's Report of a few years ago and definitely invade the privacy of the individual.

Test questions on going into the states on a trial basis include:

Do you share your bathtub or shower?

What is your telephone number?

How much rent do you pay?

How many hours did your husband work last week?

How many babies has your wife had?

Do you walk to work or take a taxicab?

How much money did you make last year?

Over the last several years some in Congress and others outside Government have proposed that there be established a National Data Center which would use the Census Reports as a basis for a dossier file on every American.

No one argues that there should not be a census and, in fact, there are good and substantial reasons why the right kind of Census should be taken every five years instead of ten. There is a vast difference, however, in accounting for the number of people, their age, sex and occupation, and those which invade privacy and to which people should not be subjected.

The U. S. Census is authorized by the Constitution and must be conducted for certain necessary purposes. We, of course, must know what our population is and, in fact, this is what the Constitution originally provided. Originally, it was intended for the purpose of apportioning the U. S. House of Representatives. To quote the authority contained in the Constitution suggests the simplicity intended: "The actual enumeration shall be made within three years after the first meeting of the Congress of the United States, and within every subsequent term of ten years, in such a manner as they shall by law direct." Of course, this leaves room for an expansion of information in accordance with the times, but the times never require people to reveal intimate data about themselves which is not the Government's business. In addition, they want to impose on those who refuse to answer for any reason, a fine of $100 and a jail term of up to 60 days. The vast majority of people would probably not object to some form of compulsory requirement to respond to essential questions.

For the purpose of identifying the citizens of our Country and to serve the interest of business which needs certain information, it is suggested simple form, mailed to each that seven questions on a household, should meet the requirements. These are: Name and address; relation to head of household; sex; date of birth; race or color; marital status; and visitors in home at the time of Census.

Instead of this simple requirement, the pre-test forms and those which may be submitted unless legislative action prohibits it, will contain more than 100 questions.

A Bill now before the Congress would require this basic information on each individual but would permit the answer to numerous other questions on a voluntary basis.

One after another who have studied this question in depth feel that much more accurate and useful data would be obtained if given on a voluntary basis. Market research firms have found that any element of coercion tends to invalidate the results of survey research. Certainly, the same thing would apply to the Government's effort to pry into the private lives of every citizen.

MEANDERINGS FROM

Neinda

By GREG

Wheat harvest was in full swing last week only to come to a sudden halt this week due to unsettled weather, leaving hundreds of acres yet to be cut. With so much yet to be harvested it is hard to get a clear picture of what the yields will be.

In some spots the rust damage has cut the yields considerably. The rust has weakened the stem allowing it to fall over making it impossible for the combines to pick it all up.

The rain Friday night dumped from 1.7 inches to 2.5 inches over most of the area. There were several reports of hail damage from the cloud Wednesday night. Quite a few farmers south of Neinda reported damage to their wheat ranging from eight percent to 40 percent with the hail doing some damage to the young milo and cotton.

Have also heard reports of careless worms doing considerable damage to gardens and in some places moving into the young cotton. Maybe the rain has put a stop to them.

Sunday afternoon was preparation day for Vacation Bible School which began Wednesday and will continue through Tuesday, June 11.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Williams and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Williams spent the weekend visiting in Odessa.

Mrs. Jerry Williams and three of her sisters came through Saturday evening on their way to be with another sister, Mrs. Snad O'Rear of Emory, whose son Kenneth, 20, was killed in a car wreck. He returned from Viet Nam in October. Our sympathy to the family. Mike stayed to

Neinda Philosopher Wants to Know If We're Going to Get One of the New Teletypewriters

Editor's note: The Neinda Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Route One asks us a question this week, the answer to which is no.

Dear editor:
Every once in a while people get discouraged about man's ability to run this world claiming the more he invents the more he adds to his burdens and confusions, like for example the better automobiles get the slower you can get around in a city because of the traffic.

But these people don't have enough confidence in man.

Just last night I read in a magazine about how newspapers are whipping the traffic problem. They've invented a portable machine called a teletypewriter.

Say a reporter is across town covering an ordinary attack on the city hall and can't get back to his office because traffic is snarled up ten blocks deep because some of the protestors got tired I suppose and layed down in the street. All he has to do is plug in his teletypewriter and start typing, and another typewriter in the newspaper office receives his story and types it out, ready to go to the printers provided they're not out on strike, thus whipping the traffic problem hands down.

I have been thinking. Now if you're planning on installing these machines in The Herald office, there'll have to be a few minor adjustments made on the original model. I mean, if you're going to hook me up with one, what you need is not a teletypewriter but a tele-pencil. It may take some getting used to, me writing on tablet paper with a pencil attached to an electric cord out here on this Johnson grass farm, and I don't know who you're going to get to produce the traffic jam to justify the machine in the first place, but we'll do the best we can.

In the long run, I've been told, man can usually whip his problems, although in my own case, when I've done something by the long run, I usually wind up just that much tired.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

ROLLING PLAINS COTTON GROWERS INC.

The continuous efforts of Texas Cotton producer organizations to get adequate research on utilization of "discount" cottons produced additional results last week when the U. S. Department of Agriculture announced a research grant of $160,795 to the Textile Research Center at Texas Technological College in Lubbock.

The study is to discover mechanical processes and blending techniques to increase utilization of cottons discounted in the market because of short staple and micronaire either below or above the most desirable 3.5 to 4.9 range.

Chief investigator for the project will be Harry Arthur, Assistant Director of the research center.

"We are highly pleased to see this study get underway and to know that it is to be done at Texas Tech where such capable people and adequate facilities are available," said Charles Bragg, RPCG Executive Vice President.

"We are making tremendous strides toward varieties and cultural practices that will diminish the significance of our short staple, low micronaire problems, he stated, "but our growing season and climate are such that in any given year we can expect to produce a considerable amount of 'discount' cotton."

The purpose of this study is to develop information on use of these cottons in blends with other cotton or in some other way that will improve their marketability and minimize the discounts they suffer in the marketplace."

The first formal move toward getting USDA to step up its investigation of the problem was taken in Dec., 1966 when representatives of Plains Cotton Growers, Texas Tech, the Cotton Research Committee of Texas and the Southern Regional Research and Development Laboratory met in Lubbock at PCG's request.

"We think there is a very real possibility that markets for this type cotton can be increased and that prices can be improved," Bragg concluded, "and if these things can be achieved substantial and continuing benefits will accrue to Texas cotton industry."

Two United States cotton sales teams, one going to the Far East and the second to the United Kingdom and Western Europe, have returned and their report on the possibility of increased buying of American grown cotton was optimistic, according to Charles Bragg, executive vice president of the RPCG.

Western European countries would greatly increase imports if they could be assured adequate supplies of good quality U. S. cotton at competitive prices, Robert Pugh, Portland, Ark., reported to Sec. of Agriculture Orville Freeman upon return of his team from the United Kingdom, West Germany, the Netherlands, Italy and France. Pugh is president of the Cotton Council International.

Pugh told Sec. Freeman that Europeans feel that un-
